At London printed for N. L. and John Trundell, 1603.

This recently discovered Play is of great curiosity, being the only known copy of the first imprinted Hamlet, and as yet unconsulted by the editors of Shakespeare. The date of the earliest Edition of Hamlet known to the Commentators, is 1604. There are very many verbal differences between this and the other editions; and the first thoughts of all the finest passages carry with them the same interest as an original sketch of some first-rate picture.

An accurate reprint of this Edition is preparing.

8. The Second part of Henrie the fourth, continuing to his death and coronation of Henrie the fift. With the humours of sir John Falstaffe, and swaggering Pistoll. As it hath been sundrie times publikely acted by the right Honourable, the Lord Chamberlaine, his seruants. Written by Williani Shakespeare.

(First Edition.) London: Printed by V. S. for Andrew Wise and William Aspley, 1600.

In Mr. Malone's collection, there are two copies of this first edition. In one of them he has the following note;—“In this copy, signature E. has only the ordinary quantity of leaves, namely, four. The publisher, finding he had omitted somewhat, cancelled the two latter, (viz. E. 3, and E. 4,) reprinted them in a different manner, and added a fifth leaf in order to get in the omitted lines. This is the only difference between the two copies. The omission spoken of, is the whole of the first scene of the third act.” Boswell.

This is one of the copies in which these leaves have been cancelled; but the signature E. contains Six leaves instead of five, as mentioned in Mr. Malone's note.
